TASK ONE

Design your own ancient Greek theatre mask. Create a drawing of your mask and include a one paragraph description. Include what type of play/actor it could be used in.

TASK TWO

Using any of the Greek myths or characters we have looked at so far, think of a short monologue or speech that character might say.

You could include how they're feeling, what they think, what they need to do.

We have looked at:

- Theseus and the Minotaur
- Odysseus and the Cyclops
- The Legend of the Trojan Horse
- The gods or goddesses (Zeus, Poseidon, Hades)
- Hercules

Make sure to record your final speech and include any actions or props that you would like.

For example, Theseus might say:

'You never believe what I've just done. What a wild day! I've just come back from defeating that minotaur that everyone talks about… not as scary as people made him out to be. Who's the hero now?'

Keep it informal and conversational.
