

STIG OF THE DUMP REWRITING CHALLENGE

Stig of the Dump is written from the narrator's point of view. The narrator describes what happens to Barney and the other characters throughout the story.

Can you rewrite the part of the story when Barney falls into the pit and first meets Stig? Write it from Barney's point of view, so Barney is describing what happened to him. You might even want to write in the style of a diary entry.

- Use personal pronouns like I and we.
- Use time connectives like next, afterwards and finally.
- Describe the events and locations in lots of detail.
- Include Barney's emotions and feelings.
