Protecting Everyone in the British Isles

Human rights are there to protect all people - no matter who they are, where they are from or how they choose to live their life.

Read the human right under each box. Draw a picture of British life to show how the human right can be seen working in our country, for example, you might draw a picture of your family going on holiday for the human right 'freedom to move'.

Protected by the Law We all have a right to be treated fairly by the law.
Private Space We all have a right to privacy. Nobody has the right to come into our home or bother us or our family without a good reason.
Freedom of Movement We all have a right to go where we want in our own country and to travel as we wish.
Freedom of Thought We all have a right to believe in what we want, to have a religion or not, even to change it if we choose.
Care and Happiness We all have a right to a good life and all people have the right to be cared for.
