

DEADLY

The background of the slide is a vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a jungle. In the foreground, a tiger is partially visible on the left, and a green snake is coiled on the right. In the background, a large dinosaur is depicted, and the scene is filled with various tropical plants and trees. The entire scene is overlaid with a semi-transparent white box containing text.

DAY 3
Writing

LO: To write a piece of persuasive writing

Sequence of writing: Persuasion x 2 weeks

Immersion

Analyse

Writing skills

Plan persuasive writing

Write

Edit and present work

Write

A writing planning sheet with a decorative border of small black dots. The sheet is divided into sections by yellow horizontal bars. The sections are labeled as follows:

- Main Title: A yellow bar at the top with a small blue square icon to its left.
- Introduction: A yellow bar below the title.
- Point 1: A yellow bar below the introduction.
- Point 2: A yellow bar below the first point.
- Point 3: A yellow bar below the second point.
- Conclusion: A yellow bar at the bottom.

Each section is followed by a large white rectangular area for writing. The sheet has a small square icon in the top-left corner and a small square icon in the bottom-right corner.

Use your planning sheet to write up your piece of persuasion. You are writing to persuade the class that your animal is the deadliest.

Let's recap the different features of persuasive writing....

Personal pronouns

Using words like 'we', 'you', 'our' and 'us' to make your audience think you are talking only to them.

Alliteration

Repeating the consonant sounds at the beginning of words to make them stand out.

e.g. Fearsome, ferocious fangs that can deliver foul venom that kills you in seconds!

2A sentences

Use 2 adjectives in front of each noun.

e.g. Their lethal, sharp claws bring fatal, instant death.

Repetition

Words or phrases are repeated so that they stick in the reader's mind.

e.g. They hunt with their keen sense of smell, smell that can hunt you out from a mile away, smell that can find you in the smallest hidey hole!

Emotive Language

When words are used to make the reader feel a certain emotion, like sadness or fear!

e.g. These deadly creatures would take your life in a second, thinking no more of killing you than you would of eating a sandwich...

Exaggeration

When information is given that is over the top, or slightly untrue.

e.g. Lions, tigers and even bears run screaming from this fearsome monster!

Rhetorical questions

Using questions that don't need an answer to get the audience to think.

e.g. How would you like to meet this predator on a dark, lonely night?

Facts and Statistics

When truthful information is given to back up a point.

e.g. The poison can kill within ten seconds/These nasty wretches are responsible for 80% of human deaths in

If if if

Use if if if structure.

If you're looking for a vicious creature that can kill in seconds. If you want an animal that can run faster than anything else! If you want a creature with poison so venomous it will leave you screaming in pain. Then you want the....!

The background of the slide is a vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a jungle. In the foreground, a tiger is partially visible on the left, looking towards the center. In the middle ground, an elephant is depicted, and on the right, a green snake is coiled around a tree branch. The scene is filled with various tropical plants and trees, creating a lush and detailed environment.

Other features

Present Tense

Short snappy sentences

Exclamation marks

Write

Use the success criteria to included everything you need to in your writing. If you have forgotten what anything is in the grid, then look back over your work from this sequence for examples.

Thursday 4th March

To write a piece of persuasion

1

2

3

Genre

Emotive language
Rhetorical questions

Writing/Grammar

Use full stops, capital letters and exclamation marks correctly.

Genre

Repetition
Facts and statistics
Exaggeration

Writing/Grammar

Use a semi-colon|

Genre

Facts and statistics
Persuasive sentence starters

Writing/Grammar

Use a variety of sentence that use semi-colons correctly

