

Today we will be following the big , bad wolf's evil ways again by looking at what he did to Little Red Riding Hood's Grandma. Act out the story, again focusing on story language and spotting adjectives in the texts.

We will have a writing challenge at the end of the story!

Little Red Riding Hood

Once upon a time there was a little girl, who was called Red Riding Hood.

Early one morning, she woke up and found out her grandmother was lonely and poorly. First, she made her a gigantic basket of food.

Then, she walked through the deep, dark woods where...

... she met a wolf, a big wolf, a bad wolf.

"Where are you going?" said the wolf.

"To my grandmother's and you can't stop me!" said Little Red Riding Hood.

Unfortunately, the big bad wolf ran and ran all the way to grandmother's house and locked her in a cupboard. He wanted to eat Little Red Riding Hood.

Finally, Little Red Riding Hood arrived at grandmother's.

"Oh, grandmother, what big ears you have!" said Little Red Riding Hood.

"All the better to hear you with, my dear!"

"Oh, grandmother, what big teeth you have!"

"All the better to eat you with!"

The End

Then, Little Red Riding Hood ran and ran into the deep, dark wood where luckily she met a woodcutter.

Suddenly, the woodcutter captured the big bad wolf. So, Little Red Riding Hood and her grandmother lived happily ever after. The end.

Dear Class One,

I hope you don't mind me writing to you but I heard that you are such a helpful class! I have also been told that you are fabulous little writers. So, I have a little problem and I wonder if you can help me?

My problem is that the big bad wolf ate all of the food in my basket when he locked me in the cupboard. I now have no food and Little Red Riding Hood is in bed with a cold.

My problem is that I am very forgetful and I can never remember the names of any of the foods I like and I need to write a list so the local shop can make my basket.

I know I would like something healthy, some fruit and vegetable, something sweet, something that will fill me up and something to drink. Can you design me a basket of food? I can then choose my favourite one.

Many thanks for your help Class One. I know you will do a super job!

From Grandma

As you can see Grandmother has lost her basket of food because the wolf ate it all up. Let's make a new basket of food
for her to make her happy.
What foods can we put in the basket. Let's remember to use our adjectives?

Here's what Callan put in the basket for Grandma!

In Grandma's basket there is large juicy slice of watermelon, a long, fresh stick of bread, a bunch of refreshing grapes, one large ripe tomato and one yummy rainbow cupcake

Can you spot the commas? We use commas when we have to put a list into our writing.

Now look at the worksheet and create your own basket of food.
