Mosques in our local area

- From looking at the images of Mosques, did you think that there would be any in Scarborough?
- ❖ There is a mosque in Scarborough town centre, roughly 4 miles away, 10minutes by car.
- This Mosque is a special place for Muslims, and it is similar to churches (for Christians) or Synagogues (for Jewish people). It may not look like the Mosques that we have seen in the previous pictures. But we have learnt that a Muslim can worship wherever they feel is right.

Your own special place

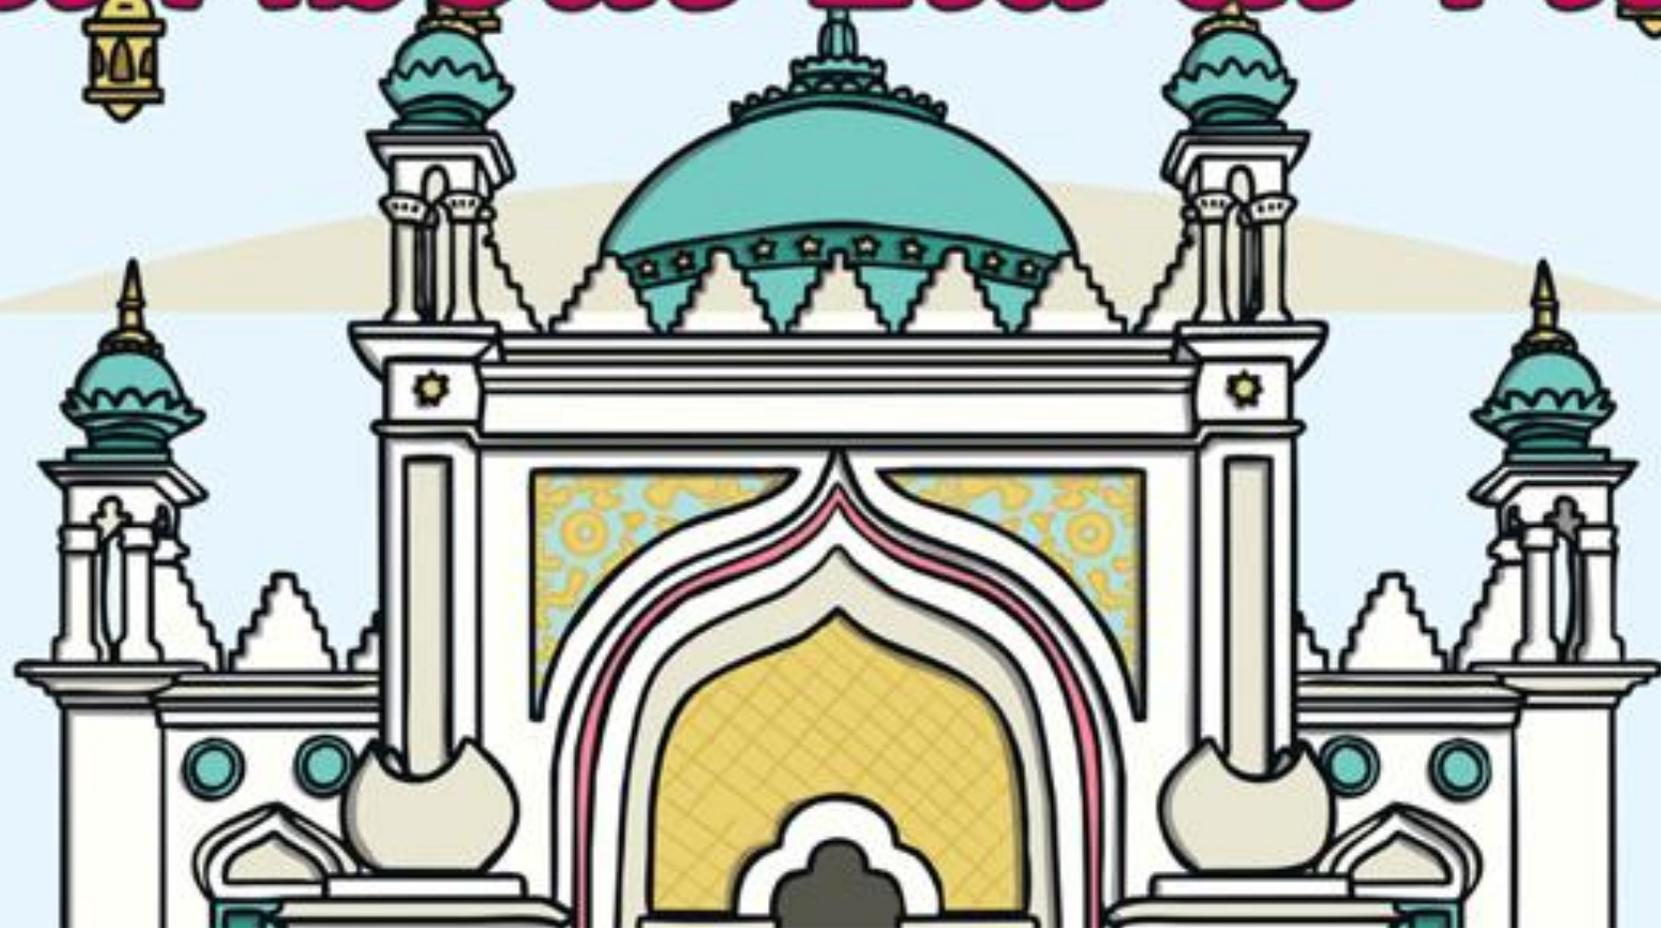

- Can you think about a place that may be special to you?
- What makes it special?
- Where is your special place?
- Who can visit your special place?

Discuss with a partner or an adult.

A place of worship

- Muslims, Christians and the Jewish faith all have a place to worship. Can you remember what each is called?
- Muslim
 - ❖ Mosque
- Jewish
 - ❖ Synagogue
- Christianity
 - ❖ Church
- What do you think?
- Is it good to have a building where people can go to see if they can feel close to God?
- What would help people who want this feeling?
- Have you ever felt close to God?

All About Eid al-Fitr

Information About Ramadan and Eid al-Fitr

Eid al-Fitr is a Muslim festival which comes at the end of the month of Ramadan.

What is Ramadan?

During Ramadan, healthy grown-ups who are Muslims do not eat or drink anything, including water, during the day while the sun shines. This is called fasting.

Information About Eid al-Fitr

'Eid' means festival or celebration. 'al-Fitr' means 'breaking of the fast.'

This shows that Eid al-Fitr is the festival after the fasting during the month of Ramadan.

'Eid Mubarak' is a greeting often used during the festival. It means 'Have a blessed Eid!'

Happy Eid!

How Is Eid al-Fitr Celebrated?

Muslim families celebrate Eid al-Fitr by putting on new clothes.

They enjoy sharing meals with family and friends. They prepare all different kinds of foods like samosas, pakoras, kebabs and much more.

How Is Eid al-Fitr Celebrated?

Homes are decorated with colourful decorations and lanterns.

Muslims read their holy book, the Qur'an, and go to a mosque to pray.

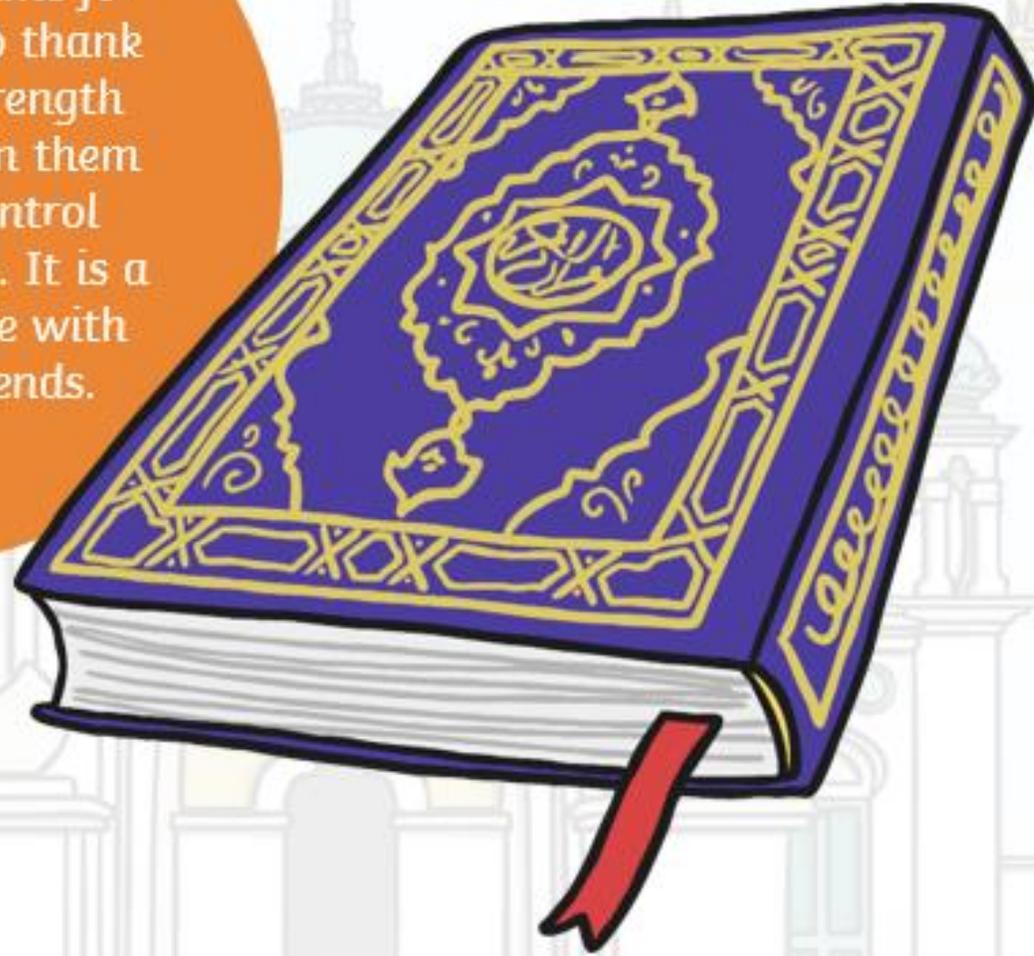

Muslims visit their friends and family. They give greetings cards and children may receive gifts of money, clothes and toys.

Women and girls decorate their hands with mehndi patterns. Mehndi is made from crushed henna leaves mixed with oil and other liquids such as lemon juice, water or tea.

Eid al-Fitr is a time for Muslim people to thank Allah for the strength that he has given them to have self-control during Ramadan. It is a time to celebrate with family and friends.

Your Activity

I would like you to complete the worksheet of what happens during Ramadan. What can you also remember from previous lessons.

I would also like you to create a poster on the second sheet provided, or a plain piece of paper. This can either be for the festival of Eid-ul-Fitr or for Ramadan you can choose.

The poster could include some key words from the festivals, drawings of what may happen in the festivals.

A Muslim family explains that Eid is the festival at the end of Ramadan. They explain that Ramadan is the month of fasting when they give up eating and drinking during the day. It is also a time when Muslims pray and think of those less fortunate than themselves.
