

Adverbs of Time Quiz

Which adverb would you add to the sentence to show when something happens?

_____, I went clothes shopping with my mum.

Weekly

Tomorrow

Yearly

Yesterday

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

Which adverb would you add to the sentence to show when something happens?

I'm not feeling very well _____.

tomorrow

today

before

yesterday

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

Which adverb would you add to the sentence to show when something happens?

It's my turn on stage _____.

next

daily

weekly

yesterday

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

Which adverb would you add to the sentence to show when something happens?

I went shopping and _____ I went for a meal.

soon

daily

then

today

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

Which adverb would you add to the sentence to show when something happens?

I've been getting better at spelling _____.

next

daily

tomorrow

recently

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

Which adverb would you add to the sentence to show when something happens?

I go food shopping _____.

weekly

sometimes

yearly

occasionally

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

Which adverb would you add to the sentence to show when something happens?

_____, I am going to a party.

Twice

Sometimes

Yearly

Tonight

Oh no!

Try again

Correct!

Well done!

Adverbs of time for Murton Park

- Firstly
- To begin with
- Now
- Then
- Next
- Secondly
- Soon after that
- 10 minutes later
- Meanwhile
- Before long
- After a while
- Later
- Now
- In the mean time
- Immediately
- When
- After some time
- After that
- Afterwards
- At that point
- A few minutes later
- Initially
- Finally
- To finish
- Eventually
- At last
- Until then