Remembrance Day

Remembrance Day is held on the 11th of November - the 11th day of the 11th month of the year. A two minute silence is always held at 11am to remember the millions who have died at war.

Remembrance Day was first held in 1919, one year after World War I ended. It is sometimes known as Armistice day.

On Remembrance Day, people will lay wreaths of poppies on statues and monuments to remember all the soldiers who died for us.

Poppies are worn on Remembrance Day because they are the flowers which grew on the battlefields after World War I ended.

Today we use Remembrance Day to remember all those who have died
since World War 1

An organisation called the RSL (Returned and Services League) run the Poppy Appeal every year to raise money for men and women who have served or are serving in the Defence Force. They raise money by selling small poppies.
