ROSA PARKS

Recap of our lesson last week.

ROSA PARKS

She was born 4th February 1913, in Tuskegee, Alabama.

She grew up on a farm with her brother, mother and grandparents.

She worked as a seamstress after she left school.

Seamstress: a job sewing and making clothes.

ALABAMA

Rosa Parks lived in Alabama, a southern state of America.

CIVIL RIGHTS

Black people (African- Americans) living in Alabama were not treated equally to white Americans.

They did not have equal rights.

Example: Black people and white people had to sit in certain seats on the bus. If all the “white seats” were taken then a black person had to stand up to let the white person sit down!

This was the law in Alabama!

SEGREGATION (SEPARATION)

STANDING UP FOR HER RIGHTS.

On 1st December 1955 after coming home from a hard days work, Rosa was sitting on the bus when the bus driver ordered her to give up her seat to a white man, who couldn't find a seat in the "white section" of the bus.

"It was a small act of defiance, she refused to give up her seat, as a black woman to a white man, this changed the course of American history." BBC News.

TREATED EQUALLY?

"Are you going to stand up?" the bus driver, James Blake, asked.

"No," she answered.

"Well, by God," the driver replied, "I'm going to have you arrested."

"You may do that," Mrs Parks responded.

ARRESTED

Found guilty of breaking the law which required black people to give up their bus seats to whites, Rosa Parks was fined $14.

Rosa is bailed from jail by her friend, Mr E.D. Nixon.
(Another civil rights leader.)

BOYCOTT OF THE BUS SYSTEM

Boycott means: to refuse to buy something or to take part in something as a way of protesting.

- By boycotting the buses they hoped to change the laws of segregation. The buses depended on African-Americans to keep their business running.

NON-VIOLENT PROTEST

The boycott went on for 13 months.

Instead of riding the buses to work, many African-American people in Montgomery, Alabama, found other ways to get to work.

■ How else do you think they got to work?

Walked

Cycled

Shared cars

SUCCESS!

The boycott ended when the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that the segregation laws on Alabama's buses were not legal.

African- Americans
walking to work,
boycotting the buses.

AN INSPIRATION TO OTHERS

Inspiration: an idea or act which effects others to act in a similar way.

Rosa was given the nickname “The Mother of the Civil Rights Movement”.

- She inspired Rev. Martin Luther King (picture) and others to protest for equal rights in America.

“I HAD A RIGHT”

Sadly Rosa died on 24th October 2005.

She will be remembered for standing up for what she believed inspiring others to change the world for better.

“The real reason of my not standing up was I felt that I had a right to be treated as any other passenger.”

Rosa Parks, 1992.

RED WORKSHEET — LOOK AT THE CARDS

DECIDE WHAT RIGHT ORDER THEY WOULD GO IN

1913	December 1 st 1955	December 5 th 1955	December 1955- December 1956	2005

Rosa Parks died on 24th October.

The bus boycott took place. Black people showed their support for Rosa, by refusing to use the buses. The boycott lasted for 381 days.

Rosa Parks was born in Alabama, USA on 4th February.

Rosa was charged with breaking the rules and causing trouble. She was found guilty and fined.

Rosa was told to give up her seat on a bus for a White person but she refused.
