

Thursday 3rd February 2022

Lesson Objective: To use present perfect tense to form sentences

★ Success Criteria ★		Me	Miss B
1	I can sort statements into past and present perfect tense
2	I can re-write past sentences into present perfect tense
3	I can re-write past sentences into present perfect tense and develop them using description

Red

Read the following sentences and decide whether they are past tense or present perfect tense.
Place them on the correct part of the sorting grid below.

Past tense	Present perfect tense

They haven't gone to sleep yet.	He went to speak to the Spartans to ask for help.	I have never been so exhausted.	There has been a terrible accident.	I have worked in the army for 10 years.	I saw the army stand there bravely.	I was exhausted.	The army attacked the Athenians.
He has gone to speak to the Persians.	I drew a picture of the battlefield.	I have seen armies as fierce as the Persians before.	I started in the army as a young boy.	The army has attacked the Athenians twice already.	The Athenians have been outside for days.	There were thousands of arrows flying through the air.	He ran for many miles.

Yellow

Re-write the following sentences into present perfect form.

1. I saw the army stood there.

2. He went to speak to the Spartans.

3. I drew a picture of the battlefield.

4. I started in the army when I was a young boy.

5. I was exhausted.

6. The army attacked the Athenians.

7. We saw thousands of arrows flying through the air.

8. I knew this would be a bad idea.

9. Pheidippides ran nearly 26 miles back to Athens.

Green

Re-write the following sentences into present perfect form. Add extra detail to each sentence. This might be an adverb, adjective or subordinate clause.

1. I saw the army stood there.

2. He went to speak to the Spartans.

3. I drew a picture of the battlefield.

4. I started in the army when I was a young boy.

5. I was exhausted.

6. The army attacked the Athenians.

7. We saw thousands of arrows flying through the air.

8. I knew this would be a bad idea.

9. Pheidippides ran nearly 26 miles back to Athens.
