

Wednesday 2nd February 2022

Lesson Objective: To look at humanism and explore what life is like without God.

★ Success Criteria ★		Me	Miss B
1	I can rank the rules and principles of those who are not religious
2	I can answer some questions about the rules of Humanists
3	I can compare Humanism with other religions and identify some similarities and differences

Red

These rules are the kind of rules Humanists try to live by

- Be honest • Use your mind to decide what is good • Tell the truth • Do to other people what you would like them to do to you • Be kind • Be generous • Be active

Can you rank these rules by the ones which you think are the most important to the least important?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____

Yellow

These rules are the kind of rules Humanists try to live by

• Be honest • Use your mind to decide what is good • Tell the truth • Do to other people what you would like them to do to you • Be kind • Be generous • Be active

Answer the following questions. Do you think the rules are all equally hard? What would happen if everyone lived like this? What if everyone did the opposite of this?

Green

These rules are the kind of rules Humanists try to live by

• Be honest • Use your mind to decide what is good • Tell the truth • Do to other people what you would like them to do to you • Be kind • Be generous • Be active

Answer the following questions. Do you think the rules are all equally hard? What would happen if everyone lived like this? What if everyone did the opposite of this?

Extension: What are the main differences between Humanism and other religions? Can you see any similarities between Humanist values and what you know of religious values?